

“LET’S TALK SAFETY” with

labourforce
group

human capital management

Wednesday 24th February @ 1pm Labourforce is hosting its quarterly “Lets Talk Safety With Labourforce” with David Chernich, Labourforce ANZ Safety Manager. He will be hosting via Zoom an interactive discussion with Nigel Smith, Australia Paralympian.
(Zoom Meeting 985 6947 7240 Passcode J4DgUm)

Nigel’s leg was amputated after a workplace accident from a chain conveyor and then went on to represent Australian Volleyball Team in 1998 Paralympian Olympics.

Nigel shares his story in the hope that employers and employees are aware of the importance working safely.

“It’s not always up to an employer to point out potential risks on the job – employees also had to be aware”.

“We do have to keep striving for a safe workplace”.

This session is

FREE

and participants
will be able to ask questions
at the end

If you would like to join Nigel and David then zoom details are Zoom Meeting ID: 985 6947 7240 Passcode: J4DgUm